

PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date: January 2020

This website uses a company called Google, Inc. (“Google”) to collect and analyze information about the use of our website(s). The information generated by the Cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may use the data collected to contextualize and personalize the ads of its own advertising network. This information helps us serve relevant advertisements to you on Google, and also helps us to measure the effectiveness of our marketing campaigns. We also use this information to help diagnose technical and service problems, administer our websites, measure the usability of our websites, identify users of our websites, and gather demographic information about our users. If you have an account with Google, click here to manage your advertising settings, otherwise you can manage these settings through your web browser, however please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website.

We also use a company called Facebook to collect and analyze information about the use of our website(s). This information helps us serve relevant advertisements to you on Facebook and Instagram, and also helps us to measure the effectiveness of our marketing campaigns. If you have an account with Facebook, click here to manage your advertising settings.

For your convenience and information, our websites may provide links to other online services, and may include third-party features such as apps, tools, widgets and plug-ins. These online services and third-party features may operate independently from us. The privacy practices of the relevant third parties, including details on the information they may collect about you, is subject to the privacy statements of these parties, which we strongly suggest you review. To the extent any linked online services or third-party features are not owned or controlled by Tailwind Group, Inc. or its affiliates, we are not responsible for these third parties’ information practices.

Our websites are intended for a general audience and are not directed to children. We do not knowingly collect personal information online from children under the age of 13.

By using this website, you consent to the processing of data about you by Google in the manner and for the purposes set out above. Find Google's privacy policy here.
